NARRATIVE	Suspect #1 entered the Hamilton County Courthouse on June 30 th 2015 at 0758 hours. She possessed (2) suitcases that contained personal belongings, which she carried with her. One of her suitcases was flagged by a Jail/Court Deputy as containing something suspicious which closely resembled a grenade. The officers evacuated the building, and the HDU responded and contained the suspicious item. The item was later identified as a bottle of perfume, shaped exactly like an older hand held grenade with a round pull ring on the metal lid. The suspect was questioned and released with no charges filed. The Prosecutors Office was contacted and advised no charges would be filed.

At 0750 this morning, I was notified by radio from Cpl. Maher to respond to the lobby and search a package. I started at the front doors and searched up and beyond the package. My canine responded to the package. I then worked down the hall and around the corner to the package and the canine responded again. At that point, I notified Lt. Brogan. He came down to the lobby and requested me to notify Hamilton County bomb squad. I notified Sgt. Justice (Appox 0810). They were in route and Cincinnati bomb squad appeared on scene. We did preliminary search of the building and used a vehicle to block off Main Street. We also assisted Cincinnati bomb squad and Hamilton County bomb squad as needed. The package had a cold pack that contained urea, which is a nitrate for explosives, and a perfume bottle that looked like a hand grenade.

INCIDENT LOCATION	INCIDENT TIME (H:M)
1000 Main Street, Hamilton County Courthouse, Cincinnati, OH 45202	0753 hours

On this date 06/30/15, I was assigned and working the Courthouse lobby security check point with Cpl. D. Maher. We opened @ 0750 hours and started letting the public in for courthouse business. We had several people in line when a now known (Felicia Brock Ctrl # 2702683) arrived with several bags, including two suitcases. She placed the smaller suitcase on the conveyor belt and Cpl. Maher and myself placed the larger one on the belt due to the size and weight. In this bag, the x-ray showed what appeared to be a hand held grenade. Cpl. Maher had me look at the screen and I confirmed the same. We made the decision to close the line and send everyone else to the other side of the lobby. I had Ms. Brock step away from her bags, which she was attempting to pick up, and stand against the wall. Cpl. Maher closed the line and took the people to the other side of the lobby. Cpl. Maher then contacted Deputy Fischesser via radio to respond to the courthouse. At this time, Felicia Brock started stating that I was profiling her because she was Muslim and by how she was dressed. She then stated that she wanted my badge number and was going to sue me. At this time, I walked her down by room 115 where Deputy Cobb was stationed in the lobby. Deputy Fischesser arrived at the courthouse with his canine @ 0756 hours. Within a minute, Deputy Fischesser's dog hit on the suitcase. I then detained Ms. Brock and placed her in handcuffs and transported her to our office in room 260 of the courthouse. Deputy Rose responded to the office and patted Ms. Brock down for weapons at approximately 0810. At 0815, I advised Felicia Brock of her rights in the presence of Deputy Rose and Sgt. Snow. Ms. Brock stated that she wanted to speak to her attorney before questioning. At 0820 her attorney, James Bogan, was notified and advised to respond to room 260 of the courthouse. Mr. Bogan arrived at 0850. Felicia Brock was interviewed with her attorney present in room 260 of the courthouse by Sgt. Gary Wolfzorn and myself.

On 6/30/15 at 1115 hours, Cpl. Lee Boettcher and Deputy Dan Kissing were requested by Sheriff Jim Neil to deploy Deputy Kissing's Explosive Detection K-9 inside room #122 of the Motel 6 located at 5300 Kennedy Avenue Cincinnati, Ohio 45213. This room was previously occupied by Felicia Brock. Ms. Brock was involved in an earlier investigation, which led to the evacuation of the Hamilton County Courthouse. The K-9 checked inside room #122 and the common areas of the Motel 6 and found nothing. An upside down green ammo can was located inside a dumpster at the northeast corner of the Motel 6. Photographs were taken of the ammo can and the Hazardous Devices Unit was called in to evaluate the ammo can.
